Has Clever Joke On Rotary Club

Special Cable to The Waihington Herald and Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, Aug. 20.—Ambassador Myron T. Herrick was receiving a few friest who had motored down to Havre to meet him on the arrival of La France. They were in the dining room of the Ambassador's private suite, and he was having soft bolled eggs and cafe au jait as the French erve it.

Mr. Herrick was talking about their minds

men who changed their minds quickly.

"I knew a man once who changed
his mind so rapidly and continually
that he told me he occasionally found the seat of his trousers in front," said the Ambassador.

"He was a regular Rotarian," remarked Col. Bunau-Varilla, owner of La Matin, who was greatly interested in Rotarians as a result of their recent visit to France following the convention in Edinburgh.

Those present were unanimous in agreeing that Col. Bunau-Varilla had "pulled" one of the fastest lines
yet.

FIFTY MORE CLUBS BACK STADIUM IDEA

Will Send Delegates to Mass Meeting to Be Held on Wednesday.

Fifty more clubs yesterday sig-nified their intentions of sending delegates to the mass meeting to be held in the Central High School Additorium Wednesday, for the pur-pose of organizing a District Athletic Association and to complete plans for raising funds for the pro-posed Roosevelt Memorial Stadium.

Additional evidence that the pro-posed stadium is stirring public in-terest in Washington is coming in daily to the office of the organiza-tion in the Munsey Building in the form of queries by phone and mail from both business, civic and ath-letic organizations.

Among the prominent District men who will speak at the con-vention will be William F. Gude, rent commissioner, and a leader in trade circles; B. A. Bowles, cash-ier of the Potomae Savings Bank and probably Commissioner Ru-dolph. Several other local busi-ness men have signified their in-tentions of attending and represen-tatives from other States will come Washington to explain building of other stadiums.
